Remarks

A Victorian elegance graced with architectural details showcasing the craftsmanship of a period defined by grandeur and timeless beauty. Built in 1884 for Virginia Lloyd Drane and husband Captain Henry Martyn Drane, this two-story home with separate two-unit carriage house was recently updated to recreate the vision of life at the turn of the century all while enjoying modern day luxury amenities. Victorian splendor is evident throughout with the original medallions, ornate plaster crown molding, 12' plus ceilings, floor-to-ceiling bay windows, rich heart pine flooring, and a total of six bedrooms, all with en-suite baths. The side porch, with its intricate railing and decorative columns, frames the perfect view of the garden creating a colorful tapestry of textures and tones. Surrounded by the vibrancy of the Landmark Historic District, it offers a highly walkable lifestyle with close access to Forsyth Park, local shops, dining, and cultural attractions.
